

Rotary Club of Fort Myers South Vocational Service Leadership Award

This prestigious award recognizes individuals in the community who have exhibited significant support of vocational service by fulfilling each of the following criteria:

- A. Exemplifying integrity and high ethical standards in their vocation and in Rotary (if Rotarian); and
- B. Using their vocational talents to serve the community.

By undertaking these activities, you bring vocational service to life. Vocational service is the essence of Rotary and serves as the foundation from which we serve our communities around the world.

Who is eligible: Business owners and professionals in the South Fort Myers area.

Nomination Process: Nominees can be self-nominated or nominated by someone else. Membership in Rotary not required.

Time Line: The nomination process is open now. Deadline to submit nominations is May 1st. The award will be presented at a June meeting on a date to be determined. Nominees and nominators are expected to attend and will be guests of the club. Please review the application before you fill it out. Although it is not necessary to provide all the details asked for, it is important to be explicit as to the nominee's achievements. Information provided in this application may be used in news coverage about the nominee. Additional pages may be used to complete the application. An anonymous Selection Committee will review the applications and select those to be honored. Application information will not be verified by the committee or the Rotary Club of Fort Myers South. As part of the Vocational Service Leadership Award all statements and representations are considered to be above reproach.
